

XXO – 1er Cru

Aged 25 to 40 years

Grande Champagne

Encased in an elegant carafe with a distinct design, this XXO cognac harbors a genuine treasure at its core. Originating solely from the Grande Champagne terroir, it mirrors the aromatic richness of this region. With a substantial aging period of at least 25 years, it unveils hints of wood and exotic fruits. As a true Cognac for connoisseurs, this XXO represents the purest essence of timeless character and emotional intensity.

THE SIGHT

Displaying a rich amber hue with orange undertones, characteristic of the extensive aging in cellars.

THE NOSE

At first nose, there are hints of coffee, woody, and vanilla notes. The aromatic richness of this cognac is immediately apparent, along with its intensity, power, and length. After aeration, complex notes of prune, plum, exotic fruits, and tobacco come forward.

THE PALATE

On the palate, it boasts a dense and expansive structure, engulfing us with its notes of wood, roasted elements, and spices. Towards the end, flavors of coffee, licorice, tobacco, fig, and leather emerge. The tannins are silky, leading to a smooth and persistent finish.

GASTRONOMY

Unexpectedly, the intense notes of XXO Coutanseaux Aîné will pair perfectly with the powerful flavors of orange-infused game/meat. As part of a Franco-Chinese culinary adventure, it will marry seamlessly with a reimagined Peking duck.
